PhD Stipend = 10% of Bachelor's base TRI salary-Appendix B-1.

The guidelines below are intended as part of the transition to a TRI schedule that will closely model the regular schedule, Appendix A-1

BA+60 w/MA & BA+75 w/MA Credit Columns:

Employees placed on these columns on the regular schedule for the 2006-07 school year may remain on the 60 and 75 TRI schedule columns and receive increments and pay increases through the 2008-09 school year. If an employee is not out of these columns for the 2009-10 school year, their placement in 2009-10 will be on the 45 credit TRI schedule column at the employee's experience level, provided the employees will be guaranteed no less than what was received in 2008-09.

BA+105 w/MA & BA+120 w/MA Credit Columns:

Employees placed on these columns on the regular schedule as of the 2007-08 school year may remain on the 105 and 120 TRI schedule columns and receive increments and pay increases through the 2008-09 school year. If an employee is not out of these columns for the 2009-10 school year, their placement in 2009-10 will be on the 90 credit TRI schedule column as the employee's experience level, provided the employee will be guaranteed no less than what was received in 2008-09.
